In the present era, leadership skills are essential to work effectively, have a stress free life and realize your dreams. More and more people are working and a good number of people are volunteering for causes close to their heart. We need great people skills, to maneuver through this maze of life and to come out in flying colours. Here is an opportunity for you volunteers, who are the back bone of Palliative Care, to be more effective, productive, skillful, and to enjoy every moment of your volunteering.

Time : 8.15 am - 5.00 pm
First come first served
